

Gardening Blitz

On Saturday, March 20th, the first day of spring, the St. Johns County Extension Office will be holding a 'Gardening Blitz', an intense day of gardening information. There will be concurrent sessions going on each hour at the agriculture center. The following is the slate of topics:

Agenda

(Please mark your class choices)

8:30-9	Registration
9-10	Starting with seeds _____	or	Native plants_____
10-11	Citrus culture _____	or	Hydroponics_____
11-12	Arboretum Tour _____	or	Honey bees_____

12-1 lunch break( sign up for our wild edibles lunch $8.00, optional or brown bag your own) _____

1-2	Tree walk (kid friendly) _____	or	Ever blooming plants_____
2-3	Vegetable gardening _____	or	Organic pest control techniques_____

---

You must prepay to attend this event. The fee to attend a single lecture is $5.00 to attend two or more lectures(up to 5) it is a flat fee of $10.00. The optional lunch prepared using local wild edible plants is $8.00. Please fill out the form above indicating topic choices and lunch purchase. We ask that you preregister to attend any of these classes by sending your class selections as well as your check to: St. Johns County Extension Office 3125 Agricultural Drive St. Augustine, Florida 32092. All checks must be payable to FAEF. Deadline for registration is March 12th.